

Ena Silva, she/her, is a graduate of Diablo Valley College with Associate degrees in Graphic Design and Industrial Design. Ena has dedicated 20 years of her life working with adults with developmental disabilities.

Ena was co-founding member of Our Revolution Contra Costa, which merged with Our Revolution East Bay and is where she continues to serve as a board member.

She advocates for many issues and social justice, including Medicare for All, Green New Deal, Tuition Free College, meaningful Rent Control, and protecting Public Institutions and Social Services.

Ena has engaged voters to elect progressive candidates in Contra Costa and Alameda Counties by texting, tabling and phone banking. Ena works to recruit new voices to join the Democratic Party, and has served as a proxy for delegates at CA Democratic Party conventions several times to vote for progressive resolutions and endorsements.
